

D-Day: Normandy 1944 Honoured 5 Times at Giant Screen Cinema Association Achievement Awards 2014

Los Angeles (CA) and London (UK) - October 3, 2014/

3D Entertainment Distribution is proud to announce that D-Day: Normandy 1944, written & directed by Pascal Vuong and produced by N3D LAND Films, was recognized with five awards at last week's GSCA Achievement Awards ceremony in Toronto (ON).

From left to right: Celine Lawson & François Mantello (3D Entertainment Distribution), Jackie Mollet (Saint Louis Science Center), Franck Marchal (Original Score Composer), Isabelle Lai (3DED), Ronan Chapalain, Catherine & Pascal Vuong (N3D LAND Films), Patricia Brandino (3DED), Sylvain Grain (N3D LAND Films), Alexandra Body (3DED) and Raymond Vermette (Sound Designer).

Along with N3D LAND Films, we sincerely thank all GSCA members for their support in voting for the film in each of the categories in which it was nominated.

The 40-minute documentary narrated by legendary journalist Tom Brokaw took home the awards for Best Film for Lifelong Learning, which honors the film with the greatest educational impact for all ages; Best Original Score; Best Sound Design; and Best Visual Effects.

"We are immensely proud of this acknowledgement from our peers, and truly privileged to have been surrounded by such talented collaborators on this film as Ronan Chapalain, who oversaw the stereography and visual effects, composer Franck Marchal, sound designers Raymond Vermette and Alexandre Poirier, producers Catherine Vuong and Sylvain Grain, narrator Tom Brokaw, and countless others," said writer, director and producer Pascal Vuong. "Together, we have produced a meaningful and inspiring film I hope will be enjoyed by audiences for generations to come."

On June 6, 1944, the largest Allied operation of World War II began in Normandy, France. For the first time ever on giant screens, D-Day: Normandy 1944 provides a new perspective to audiences of all ages of this monumental event that changed the world. It pays tribute to those who gave their lives for our freedom. A duty of memory, a duty of gratitude.

Distributed worldwide by 3D Entertainment Distribution, D-Day: Normandy 1944 has been licensed by more than 35 IMAX® and digital cinemas since its initial release in April. It continues its roll out in 3D & 2D at giant screen theaters across North America and internationally.

Check out the newly re-designed film website at www.DDay-Normandy1944.com

