

Please join us for this month's Live @ Lunch presentation:

The Great War of 1914 – 1918: British Columbia Vignettes

Presented by: Dr. Lorne Hammond, Curator of History

Wednesday, November 5, 12 pm – 1 pm in Newcombe Hall

In conjunction with our ongoing exhibit on World War One and the first event of a series commemorating the anniversary of the Great War, please join Dr. Lorne Hammond in a selection of stories on the contribution of British Columbians and the impact of war on our province.

Please note: the Live @ Lunch lecture series has become increasingly popular.

Due to fire and safety regulations, the seating capacity in Newcombe Hall is limited to 150 people.

You are more than welcome to join us, but please give first priority seating to members and the general public. Many thanks!
